Description

Welcome to Scarbaresia! Land of magic!
Everyone loves magic here – magic spells, magic shows, magic shops… everyone, that is, except Aladdin. Why?
He's rubbish at magic. Like, really, really terrible.
Which wouldn't be a problem, except his dad – before he disappeared – was the most beloved sorcerer Scarbaresia has ever known. Aladdin works in a shop selling magical merchandise and dreaming of a better life for him and his mum.
So when a mysterious stranger shows up promising him riches, power and answers about his dad, Aladdin thinks all those dreams have come true. All the stranger wants in return is for Aladdin to go to Hairy Bob's Cave, retrieve a lamp and bring it back.
Simple, right?
Well, it would have been… if Aladdin hadn't rubbed the lamp…

The experience includes 360-degree projections creating an immersive sensory environment, in which we sing Christmas songs accompanied by Makaton sign; we hear an A-religious Christmas story told by a professional performer and play with textured props including snowballs and light-up stars.

Following the sensory dome experience we will invite participants to a game of "Guess the gift" allowing participants to try and guess what we have wrapped up by feeling, shaking and smelling.

We will have a fun photo session with our green screen and superimpose ourselves into the North Pole.

We will have a sensory food game, where we will feel and smell different foods associated with Christmas. If participants want to and are able, they can also taste the foods.

We will then enjoy a Christmas buffet together, before working with an inclusive visual arts practitioner to make Christmas decorations to take home.This experience is designed to be inclusive. Everybody is welcome, particularly those with additional needs.
